RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL

2005 JAN 10 A 8:56

Dear Mr. Jordan:

Bush-Cheney '04, Inc., David Herndon, Treasurer, ("BC '04") has received the complaint designated as MUR 5632.

The complainant alleges that the Iosco County Republican Committee engaged in impermissible spending for a newspaper advertisement. The complaint makes no allegations against BC '04, provides no articles or evidence of involvement of BC '04, and BC '04 is not named as a respondent.

While the newspaper advertisement that is the subject of the complaint identified "President Bush," "Vice President Cheney" and others, there was no coordination between the Iosco County Republican Committee and BC '04 with respect to this message.

As a result, the Commission should find no reason to believe and dismiss the complaint against BC '04.

Sincerely,

Thomas Josefiak
General Counsel
